

Professor Balghis Badri, BSc. Social Anthropology – Division 2 Upper 1971 Khartoum University, MSc. Social Anthropology 1974 Khartoum University, Ph.D. Sociology, Hull University, England 1978 – Professor of Sociology , Women Study.

Director of the Institute of Women, Gender and Development Studies

Current research activities:

- Three researches under the Project titled “the Micro and Miso issues in peace building in Sudan which is undertaken by Institute of women, Gender and Development Studies and Bergen University. The following are the title of the researches:
  - Assessment of Sudanese women’s Knowledge on the Sudan National Interim Constitution of 2005
  - Assessment of the Sudan National Interim Constitution of 2005 and good governance from gender perspectives.
  - Analytical study on the National Context that Impacted the Sudan National Interim Constitution of 2005.

Recent Publications:

- Badri, Balghis (2007), “Participatory Law Reform” in Balghis Badri And Akolda Tier ( ed) The Proceedings of the 2006 Law Reform Conference in Sudan . Ahfad University for Women. Omdurman: Sudan
- Badri, Balghis And Tier, Akolda ( ed), (2007) The Proceedings of the 2006 Law Reform Conference in Sudan . Ahfad University for Women. Omdurman: Sudan
- Badri, Balghis ( 2007) “The Program of the Political Party: Its components: A future vision for women’s issues ” in Eltayeb H. Attia; The Program of the Political parties. Institute of Peace Studies, Khartoum University and Friedrich Ebert Stiftung. Khartoum: Sudan.
- Badri, Balghis (2007) “Quota System for Enhancing Women Parliamentary Representation” in Balghis Badri (ed) Sudanese Woman: Realities, Challenges and Prospects. Ahfad University for Women: Omdurman- Sudan. (Forthcoming)
- Badri, Balghis (ed) (2008) Sudanese Women Profile: Pathways to Empowerment. Ahfad University for Women: Omdurman- Sudan. (Forthcoming)