

Personal details and autobiography

Name	René van Veenhuizen
Position	Senior Consultant
Name organisation/ institute	ETC Foundation
E-mail address	r.van.veenhuizen@etcnl.nl
Website (if applicable)	www.etc-international.org www.ruaf.org www.partnership-programmes.org/hrp/html/home.html www.searca.org/brp/

René van Veenhuizen (1963) is senior consultant with ETC Foundation. He graduated in land and water management from Wageningen University, the Netherlands, and has been working in various functions with Wageningen University and the Open University in the Netherlands, and in various other countries with the Food and Agriculture Organisation, in research, concept development, information management, training, implementation and networking, related to sustainable agricultural development, land and water management and poverty alleviation. The past seven years he has been working at ETC Foundation with a focus on urban agriculture and management and facilitation of research for development. Since 2000, he is the editor of the urban agriculture magazine and has edited a number of magazines, articles and books.