

Shyamika Jayasundara is a doctoral candidate in Development Studies at Institute of Social Studies(ISS), Netherlands. Until end of 2007 she worked as the advisor - Capacity Building Initiatives at GTZ/FLICT project. Before joining GTZ/FLICT project, she was the Deputy Country Director at Room to Read, an US based education NGO in Sri Lanka. Shyamika was also a lecturer at the Faculty of Graduate Studies, University of Colombo and a freelance consultant/trainer for many other local and international organizations. Shyamika holds a B.A (Hons.) degree in International Relations from University of Colombo and M.A in Conflict Transformation from the Eastern Mennonite University, USA. She also holds a graduate certificate in Peace Research from University of Oslo. Shyamika is a recipient of Fulbright and NORAD scholarships. She has gained several years of experience as a lecturer and a trainer by working with several graduate and post-graduate level programs conducted in Sri Lanka by various national and foreign universities and institutes on peace and conflict studies. Her current research interests are in the field of development and peacebuilding.