

Netherlands Fellowship Programmes - PhD studies
Requirements for the letter of the co-supervisor

When you apply for an NFP PhD fellowship and you have a co-supervisor in your own country you can upload (online fellowship applications ) or attach (paper fellowship application) a letter by your co-supervisor to your application.

Note that in the application form you still need to complete the data regarding your supervisor.

The letter from your co-supervisor must:

- be written on the official letter head of the co-supervisor's organisation;
- be signed by the co-supervisor;
- describe the role and tasks of the co-supervisor during your PhD research.
